TRAUMA-INFORMED PRACTICES

Supporting Vulnerable Children and Youth

Friday, November 3, 2017
Imperial Valley College
Room 2734/Lecture Hall
8:15 am to 1:15 pm

Breakfast and lunch will be provided.
Free parking.

Becoming "trauma-informed" means recognizing that people often have many different types of trauma in their lives. People who have been traumatized need support and understanding from those around them.

Trauma-Informed Practices Training

- 1 Learn about the physiological impacts of trauma on the brain and possible emotional, behavioral, social and intellectual/academic impacts on students in foster care.
- 2 Learn about the Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACES) studies and how they relate to life-long impacts for students impacted by trauma.
- 3 Learn about what is being done at schools and in classrooms to create trauma sensitive learning environments and strategies for responding to these impacts.
- 4 Develop an understanding of the importance of self-care: addressing our own traumatic experiences/history.

Trauma-Informed training will be offered by San Diego County Office of Education-Foster Youth Services Coordinating Program and Homeless Education.

Hear helpful information from young adults who grew up in the foster care system or experienced homelessness in Imperial County.
